Update for Dr. Solimine's patients!

As of August 25, 2024, Dr. Carmela Solimine is no longer practicing with iHealthMD. Current patients should have received an email with information about their ongoing care. We will welcome a new physician to our team in the new year. In the meantime, please use our online booking system to schedule an appointment with another physician who is happy to assist with your continuity of care.

Sincerely,
iHealthMD Team
